sentence fed directly (no training)
clauses in turn A→B (no training) trained on combined phrasings
close-wording set (max cosine to the combined training phrasings in brackets)
Avoid carrying the mug over the laptop and keep the mug upright to prevent spilling. (0.91)
Keep the mug upright to prevent spilling, and avoid carrying it over the laptop. (0.91)
Don't pass above the electronics and maintain the cup's vertical orientation. (0.86)
Carry the mug around the laptop without tilting it. (0.96)
Keep the cup level and away from the space above the laptop. (0.83)
Do not spill, and do not go over the computer. (0.80) far-wording set (max cosine to the combined training phrasings in brackets)
While moving the cup, don't let it lean, and give the computer a wide berth. (0.73)
The drink must stay level, and it must never be above the notebook. (0.72)
Two rules: no tipping, and no crossing over the PC. (0.70)
Treat the cup like it's full and keep it out of the airspace over the keyboard. (0.73)
Go around the electronics with the beverage held straight up. (0.71)
Spilling is not allowed, and neither is passing over the laptop. (0.73)
0.0
0.2
0.4
0.6
0.8
1.0
Both constraints met and mug placed (test scenes)